

PET/CT - 3

An in depth study exploring the benefits, current research and solutions that PET/CT offers. Suitable for Radiologists, Radiology trainees, Nuclear Medicine technicians, Senior Radiographers, Oncology and Radiotherapy Consultants, Surgeons and Surgical Trainees.

day 1

Thursday 11th Dec 2008

PET/CT in Oncology & How to scan well

Introduction, Key Concepts

Important aspects re: patient preparation to avoid artifacts

PET/CT: Key Clinically important Pitfalls

Breast Cancer:

Roles of PET/CT, CT, MRI & Bone scans

PET/CT and Lung Cancer

Key points, pitfalls & important weaknesses

Colorectal Cancer:

Imaging modalities - strength and weaknesses of CT, PET, MRI (liver)

+

Patient pathway

(registration 9.00am) 9.30am - 5.00pm
The Royal Marsden NHS Trust
Fulham Road
London SW3

day 2

Friday 12th Dec 2008

Lymphoma: The Role of PET/CT

Staging, (Early) response assessment, Prognostication and residual mass/follow up assessment

Head & Neck Cancer

The place of PET, CT & MRI

PET/CT: other tumour types

Melanomas/sarcomas/gynae & urology tumours/ intracranial neoplasms

PET/CT: Radiotherapy Planning

PET/CT: Oncology Patient Cases

Interactive session

(registration 9.00am) 9.30am - 5.00pm
The Royal Marsden NHS Trust
Fulham Road
London SW3

Admission - £375+vat for both days or £250+vat for single day
Coffee Breaks and Lunch will be included - 10 CPD Credits will be issued Applications to: Jane Chandler Tel: 01263 740 891 fax: 01263 741 503
e-mail: jane@jcaseminars.com
Website: www.jcaseminars.com

